

Corley Centre

Summer term 2021 KS3 Homework Menu

Theme: The World

Choose your homework from the exciting menu below:

The Peri-ometer suggests the difficulty or challenge the homework may offer.

Try and complete at least 10 activities from the choices below and hand them to their mentor by Friday 9th July 2021.

Challenge yourself to at least one 'EXTRA HOT' task!

Extra Hot

For a serious challenge

.....

Hot

If you really want to challenge yourself

.....

Medium

Challenge yourself

.....

Mild

You've got this!

.....

Extra Mild

Easy peasy

Extra Hot

Create a poster on how the world can stay connected using social media.	The Chernobyl disaster affected many parts of the world. Research the Chernobyl disaster and create a scientific report highlighting the cause of the disaster. In your report you then need to highlight the immediate impact of the disaster on life surrounding the plant and the rest of the world.	Thinking of your desert island arrival in task 4, write a diary entry about your first night in this strange place. Remember to use adventurous vocabulary to describe all the new sights and experiences.	Fusion music is where genres of music are combined to create something new. Paul Simon used music from Africa to help him create the classic album 'Gracelands'. Listen to it online or on CD and write an album review.	Create a 3D animal using recycled materials.
Describe the most life changing technological innovation in the world. Give justifications for your choice.	The world can refer to the world around you. With supervision, go and explore the world around your neighbourhood. After your walk write down 5 things you saw on your walk.	The UK is described as having precious liberties enjoyed by its citizens, what are some of these liberties, how are these different to other countries? Describe at least 2 other countries and the freedoms they have or do not have compared to the UK.	Plot a line graph to compare the temperatures over a year in two different countries - one in the northern hemisphere and one in the southern hemisphere.	Where in the world would you like to visit? Make a brochure to show why.

Hot

Find the average yearly rainfall in 10 different countries and draw a bar chart to compare them - which country has the highest rainfall.	Design a logo to represent Global Warming and the effects it is having on the planet.	Research different forms of house insulation. Choose one of the coldest countries on Earth and design a super energy efficient house for this country.	"Around the world" can be a basketball move where you move a ball around your body. How many times can you move a ball around your waist in 1 minute.	What type of voting system do we have in the UK? Find at least 3 other countries that have a different voting system to us, what system do they have and how is it different to ours?
Imagine that you have arrived on a desert island in an unknown place- write a list of items that you have luckily brought with you and how they will help you to survive.	Research and explain 5 different sources of renewable energy.	Status Quo did a song called 'Rocking All Over The World'. Listen to this song and comment on your feelings towards the song. Find 5 more songs with 'World' in the title, listen to them and describe how they make you feel. In addition to this, investigate the instruments used, the song structure and chart statistics.	Research and record some acts of kindness that have taken place by religious groups during the Coronavirus Pandemic from anywhere in the world.	India has the highest population of people without internet access - 685 million, thats nearly ten time the amount of people in the UK alone! Provide a for and against argument as to why everyone should have internet access.

Medium

Describe different points of view from newspaper articles. Choose a newspaper article, this can be local, national, or international and describe the point of view given. Can you think of the opposing point of view people could have about the story?

The Olympics are now going to be held in Tokyo this year. Create a Japanese music fact sheet. You could describe traditional Japanese instruments, where they are used and how they are played.

Prepare and cook a dish from a different country in the world.

Create a watercolour painting of the globe. Try to experiment with colour mixing and contrasting colours.

Locate and describe 2 visitor attractions in Spain.

Many countries around the world have laws around driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol. Create a poster highlighting the effects of alcohol on stopping distances and which countries have the strictest laws on driving while being under the influence of alcohol.

Which countries around the world limit or do not allow their citizens to use the internet to find information? How do you think this affects those people?

"Learning a different language can change your life." Explain whether you agree or disagree with this statement, giving reasons for your viewpoints.

Find the 10 countries with the smallest populations and 10 countries with the largest populations and write them out in numerical order.

The Olympics is rescheduled for this year; research what sports are competed in at the Olympics. Are there any sports in the Olympics that you did not know were in the games? identify 5 sports from the Olympics.

Mild

Complete a research page on installation artist Christo.	Countries around the world have different types of government, here in the UK, we have a democratic government, what does this mean? Challenge, what are some other types of government and how are they different to our own?	Produce a fact sheet on the staple foods from different countries around the world.	Find 10 different 3D structures around the world, name them, add a picture and if possible, say what 3D shape they are.	Where is the Wailing Wall and why do people visit it?
Football is the most popular sport in the world, at home practice your football skills in a safe space. Could you photograph yourself doing skills or football drills?	Many countries around the world are switching to forms of renewable energy. Describe what is meant by the term 'renewable energy' and give as many examples as you can.	List all the ways you could communicate with somebody on the other side of the world using digital technology.	Use the internet to research a folk tale or traditional story from a different part of the world. In your own words, explain what happens in the story and what lessons we can learn.	Reggae is a style of music that comes from Jamaica. Find 5 other styles of music from 5 different countries and create a fact sheet about them.

Extra Mild

Find out how many countries there are in the world and list your favourite 10 countries with a fact about each.

Research and write down traditional cuisines from 5 different countries.

List five countries that you find interesting and would love to visit-add a brief reason for your choice.

Politics affects our day to day lives, everyone in the world is affected by politics. Think about your journey to school and your day at school, list at least 10 ways you are affected by politics. For example, it is the law you come to school, there are road traffic laws for your journey here, etc.

Choose 5 sports and identify which countries they started in?

Create a collage of extreme architecture. Add shapes to your page that are influenced by the shapes and lines of the buildings.

Identify and write down a religious building from 5 different countries.

Research and write about the history of the 'World Wide Web'.

The Formula 1 Grand Prix is held on racetracks in various countries around the world. Research what countries the Formula 1 Grand Prix is held, which racetrack has the fastest straight and include the formula for working out the speed.

Create your ultimate holiday playlist of 10 songs. Say why you like them and why they are in your playlist.