

CORLEY CENTRE

UK General Data Protection Regulation Students' Privacy Notice 2021~2022

1. Who processes your information?

The School is the data controller of the personal information you provide to us which means the school decides why and how personal information belonging to you and your family is used, stored and deleted.

Corley Centre, Church Lane, Corley. Wark CV7 8AZ Telephone 01676 540218

In some cases, your information may be passed to an organisation that will process your information on behalf of the school in order for us to safeguard you and support your learning. Where the school passes on your information, safeguards will be in place.

Jessica Sweet acts as a representative in the form of Data Protection Officer for the school; they can be contacted on 02476831068 or Jessica.Sweet@coventry.gov.uk. Their role is to oversee and monitor the school's data protection procedures and to make sure they are in line with the UK General Data Protection Regulation.

The school's registration number as a data controller is Z950842X

2. Why do we collect and use your information?

The School collects and uses personal data relating to you, your family and we may also receive information regarding you from your previous school, Local Authority and the Department of Education and other relevant bodies. We collect and use personal data in accordance with the UK GDPR and Data Protection Act 2018.

We collect your information in order to:

- To support your learning
- To monitor and report on your progress
- To provide non-academic services like counselling
- To make sure we are doing our best as a school
- To obey the law
- To make sure you are safe
- To ensure everyone is treated fairly and equally
- To celebrate your achievements
- To provide reports and additional information to your parents/carers
- To conduct research or analysis and/or provide statistical reports
- For the prevention and detection of crime

3. Which data is collected?

We collect this information from you:

- Personal information – e.g. basic identifiers like names, pupil numbers and addresses
- Characteristics – e.g. ethnicity, language, pupil premium and whether you can have free school meals
- Attendance information – e.g. absences and absence reasons

- Assessment information – e.g. exam results
- Relevant medical information
- Educational needs/support
- Behavioural information – e.g. exclusions
- Voicemails – deleted within 24 hours unless need for safeguarding or the prevention or detection of a crime
- Photographs for identification purposes
- CCTV
- The school may also need to collect special category data (e.g. concerning health, dietary requirements, ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation or fingerprints for school meals).
- We may also collect criminal records information in accordance with the legislation.

When collecting your information, the school will let you know whether you have to provide this data or if your permission (also called 'consent') is needed. The school will provide you with all the information you need to make a decision as to whether you want to share that data.

- In the case of biometrics [fingerprint information], we will ask for explicit consent from parents to the processing personal data. This is currently not applicable to Corley Centre

We may receive information regarding you directly from the Local Authority and previous education establishment

Who can access this data?

We keep your information as secure as possible. In order to stop those who do not have permission from using your information, we have put in place safeguards like passwords, locks and making sure everyone is aware of their duty to protect information we collect. The electronic data that we collect from you will be sent to, and stored by, an outside software provider. We will have a written agreement in place with this provider.

School staff are limited only to the information they need to perform their duties. For example; the Headteacher will have access to all information, whereas teaching assistants will only have access to information relating to their classes. Electronic data will be password protected and paper files containing personal data will be securely stored.

4. How long is your data stored for?

We keep personal data for as long as necessary or as is required by law. The School follows a Data Protection Policy and Record Retention Schedule see school website GDPR This will tell you exactly how long we keep personal information for.

5. Will my information be shared?

The School is required by law to provide information about you to the Department of Education as part of statutory data collections, such as the school census; some of this information is then stored in the National Pupil Database.

The Department of Education may share information about you from the National Pupil Database with other organisations who promote the education or wellbeing of children in England by:

- Creating research
- Producing statistics
- Providing information, advice or guidance.

The Department of Education has strong measures in place to ensure the confidentiality of any data shared from the NPD is maintained.

The school routinely collects from and shares your information with:

- Your destination upon leaving the school (like College/University/a new school)
- The Local Authority (e.g. Coventry City Council), or your previous Local Authority (e.g. Solihull /

Warwickshire)

- The National Health Service (NHS)
- The Department for Education
- Ofsted
- parents and guardians
- Authorities in relation to the prevention and detection of crime
- Suppliers and service providers – to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for. Please see the Appendix 1 to this notice for more information about suppliers/services we use.

Youth support services

Pupils aged 13+

Once you reach the age of 13, we also pass pupil information to our local authority and / or provider of youth support services.

This enables them to provide services as follows:

- youth support services
- careers advisers

Your parent or guardian can ask that only your name, address and date of birth is passed to the local authority or provider of youth support services by informing us. You can request this once you reach the age 16.

Pupils aged 16+

We will also share certain information about you if you are aged 16+ with our local authority and / or provider of youth support services.

This enables them to provide services as follows:

- post-16 education and training providers
- youth support services
- careers advisers

[We do/do not transfer your data outside the UK/ for the purpose of providing [insert purpose].

6. What are your rights?

You have the right to:

- Be told about how the School uses your personal data
- Ask to see or have a copy of your personal data
- Ask that your personal data is changed if it is not right. If you believe that any of your information is incorrect, please contact us
- Ask that your personal data is deleted where there is no reason for us to hold it any longer
- Ask that the processing of your data is limited when possible
- Say no to your personal data being used in some circumstances
- If we rely on your consent, you have the right to withdraw this consent at any time

In England, schools are regulated by The Education (Pupil Information) (England) Regulations 2005. Parents can apply in writing to the school to view their child's education record or receive a copy within 15 school days. In England, this right only applies to all local authority schools, and all special schools, including those which are not maintained by a local authority.

Information Commissioner's Office (ICO)

If you are worried about the way the School is collecting or using your personal data, you can raise a concern with School's Data Protection Officer with the details provided above or the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO). The ICO can be contacted on 0303 123 1113, Monday-Friday 9am-5pm.
